TURN IN TO LIBRARIAN AT BML

What is the Teen Advisory Board?

- The Teen Advisory Board (TAB) is a group of teens that meet on the first Saturday of the month at Breeden Memorial Library in Leavenworth
- TAB's main goal is to advise librarian Tina Brison on books to add to the library's collections, programs for teens, and tech issues. TAB will help BML become a great library for teens
- Perks include snacks at meetings, opportunities to make new friends, first dibs on new books, and volunteer hours
- If you would like to join us at our first TAB meeting, return your application to BML by Friday, February 1.
- Applications are accepted throughout the year for future meetings.
- Please be sure to answer all the questions on the form
